GARRETT-EVANGELICAL: A SIGN OF OUR HOPE

Philip A. Amerson

Let me tell you where I find hope. It is with the students of Garrett-Evangelical. A fresh new batch of them arrived on campus in late August. What a wonderful group they are: young and experienced, from cities, suburbs and rural settings, and coming with a range of theological and educational backgrounds. These students are eager to learn and to lead.

During the last week of August we held student orientation. On the final day Dean of Students Pamela Lightsey and I revived an old tradition of the school—we took a CTA train ride to the Loop. We had a great time. We visited the Chicago Temple and learned of the excellent ministries of that congregation. Our Bishop-in-Residence, Sharon Rader, joined us and spoke about the journey of faith. Later, one student said, “To hear Bishop Rader share her experiences as a Garrett-Evangelical graduate and then as pastoral leader is something I will always remember.” We went to City Hall and learned more about Chicago and the way city leaders are seeking to be in partnership with people of faith.

As we were heading for the trains to return home, I met an alumnus of the seminary in Daley Plaza, who asked what we were doing. I told him this was new student orientation week and these are some of the students who are enrolling this fall. He looked us over, smiled broadly and, after recalling his trip to the Loop with Murray Leiffer many years ago, said, “Wow, this is what I needed today. This is my sign of hope.”

There are many such signs of hope at Garrett-Evangelical. We are on the move!

- We are planning for a renovation of Loder Hall to create a first-class student life and learning center.
- The faculty continues to demonstrate amazing creativity and faithfulness in their teaching, scholarship and leadership for the church.
- We have welcomed Dr. Beth Sheppard as the director of the United Library.

- Dr. Barry Bryant joins us as associate professor of United Methodist and Wesleyan Studies.
- We will be welcoming persons to campus from across the denomination for the Deacon Dialogue II in November. Our own Professor Margaret Ann Crain is giving leadership for this event.
- Dr. Jason Byassee, associate editor of The Christian Century, has joined us as an affiliate faculty member and director of the Initiative in Theology and Media to assist our students in learning to better communicate through writing for the church and beyond.
- On March 26 and 27 we will be hosting an event entitled “Progressive and Evangelical in a Post-Christian Society.”
- Over 100 Garrett-Evangelical students are involved in field placements this year, working for congregations, chaplaincies, and peace and justice programs.
- Plans are under way to strengthen the work of our Center for the Church and the Black Experience and our Hispanic Ministries Center.

There is much, much more to tell—too much for this page to contain. So, as you pray and think about the future, you can join me in expressing gratitude for Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary and say, “Wow, this is what I needed today. This is my sign of hope.”

2006-2007 ANNUAL REPORT

October 2007

Dear Friends,

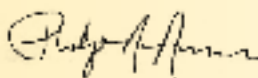

We are grateful to the 1,888 alums, 1,319 friends, 65 churches, 47 trustees, 35 corporations, 21 estates, and 14 foundations who supported Garrett-Evangelical in 2006-07. Your generosity provided more than $7 million in gifts that allowed the seminary to:

- educate 386 students for various forms of ministry;
- graduate 76 masters and doctoral students who took positions in the world as pastors, deacons, Christian educators, chaplains, and professors;
- provide scholarship assistance totaling $1.7 million to deserving students;
- host several well-attended events, including a reunion for more than 100 clergywomen and a dialogue with more than 50 representatives from African-American Methodist denominations;
- provide outstanding lectures throughout the year on a rich variety of topics including preaching, ethics and values, evangelism, youth ministry, stewardship, and religion and art;
- sponsor the first annual Eliza Garrett Day, when the Garrett-Evangelical community committed to a day of service to the wider world;
- establish 27 new endowed scholarships;
- meet the Annual Fund Matching Gift Challenge, and conclude the fiscal year with a balanced budget;
- receive $848,322 in unrestricted gifts toward the $3 million Endowment Matching Gift Challenge;
- pass the $45 million mark in the seminary's $60 million "Forging Our Future" capital campaign.

Garrett-Evangelical is blessed by those of you listed in this Annual Report. You represent a far-reaching network of alums, friends, churches, foundations, and corporations who embrace our mission, pray for us, and support us financially. In other words, you're a part of the Garrett-Evangelical family.

We sincerely hope that you will want to be a vital member of our Garrett-Evangelical family again this academic year. In that spirit we invite you to consider a generous and pace-setting gift to help the seminary forge its future. Together we can ensure that our churches and communities have the truly exceptional Christian leaders they need and deserve.

Grace and peace,

FISCAL YEAR FINANCIAL SUMMARY

FROM THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR BUSINESS AFFAIRS

During the 2006-2007 fiscal year, the seminary has continued its commitment to fiscal discipline. This commitment springs from the awareness that “living beyond means” is not any healthier for an institution than for an individual. Therefore, our operational expenditures have been watched very closely, so we can maintain our spending policy of drawing only 5% from the endowment for “current expenses.”

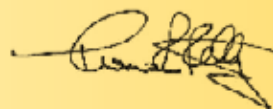

Looking forward to the new fiscal year, the finance and business affairs committee and I are happy to report that for the 2007-08 fiscal year, our operating budget conforms to that spending plan parameter.

We are accomplishing this fiscal discipline through the hard work and cooperation of many administrators and staff persons, who watch their budgets and who exercise good stewardship. In addition, for this past fiscal year, we were blessed by a very generous anonymous challenge gift, which motivated others to give to the Annual Fund as well. We offer warm gratitude to our donors for helping us meet this challenge

Additional financial highlights include:

- Endowment resources (excluding our reserve for annuity obligations) increased from $75.16 million to $91.06 million.
- The investment return on endowment assets was 17.4 percent for the fiscal year.
- The average annualized returns on the portfolio over the past three and five year periods have been 14.3% and 12.8%, respectively.
- The trustees commissioned a comprehensive, quantitative analysis of our total deferred maintenance and are in the midst of plans to renovate or replace Loder Hall and develop a long range plan to fund the accumulated deferred maintenance.

Overall, the financial position of the Seminary continues to be strong and serves as a solid foundation for moving ahead with the strategic plan. This plan envisions growing enrollment, enhancement of the educational reach of the seminary, strengthening of our relationship with United Methodist conferences, colleges, and pastors, aggressive fundraising, and continuing financial discipline.

Forging Our Future: Juanita and Robert Dennert

Juanita and Robert Dennert have been a team in ministry and in all of life for 42 years. Thus, when they decided to make a major gift commitment to Garrett-Evangelical, it was a team decision arrived at after much thought and prayer. Here is their story:

Bob graduated from Evangelical Theological Seminary in Naperville, Illinois in 1951. He began his ministry in Iowa, and later served in Texas and Wisconsin. In 1979 Bob and Juanita returned to Iowa, where Bob was appointed to Trinity United Methodist Church in Cedar Rapids. Juanita served as his personal secretary throughout his years of ministry. Bob retired from full-time ministry in 1984, following 42 years of credited ministry.

Upon retirement they continued to live in Cedar Rapids and became active in new ministries. Bob served as chaplain for 11 years at the Meth-Wick Community, the United Methodist retirement community where they live, and Juanita served as volunteer secretary in the chaplain's department. They were honored as Star Volunteers at Meth-Wick in 2005.

Now in their mid-eighties, they continue to serve their community in a variety of ways, including taking care of recycling (Bob) and coordinating volunteer support for the lobby desk (Juanita).

Bob and Juanita both grew up in modest circumstances. Bob remembers having $50 to his name when he started college. He had to work, in addition to going to school, to pay for all of his educational and living expenses.

Juanita likewise remembers the challenges of growing up during the depression. Her parents lost ownership of the family farm. However, a beloved uncle died, leaving his farm to Juanita's mother. Thus, her folks had a place to live, and they spent the rest of their years on this farm. When they passed away they left the farm to Juanita and her sister.

When Juanita's sister died, responsibility for the farm fell solely on Juanita. Since she lived at a distance from the farm, maintaining the buildings and land and adhering to government regulations became more and more of a burden.

In April 2005 Juanita and Bob attended a Small Informational Gathering hosted by Garrett-Evangelical. Bob has deep appreciation for his seminary training, saying that it helped him find a balanced faith. They were surprised to learn how expensive seminary education is today. An idea was planted in their minds.

They went home and talked and prayed about their idea. The farm Juanita inherited had been a gift. Perhaps it was time to gift it again. Since Juanita's parents and great uncle and family had been deeply involved in the church and missions, and since Bob was so appreciative of his seminary training, they decided the best gift they could give would be to provide scholarships for ministerial students, thereby helping to address the need for well trained pastors. Juanita commented that she is sure her great aunt and great uncle and her parents are sharing in the joy of this decision.

The Dennerts gifted the farm and created a Charitable Remainder Annuity Trust from the proceeds. During their lifetimes they will receive income from this trust. Following their deaths, the interest will go to Garrett-Evangelical to provide scholarships for ministerial students, with a preference given to those who are interested in pastoral ministry or mission work.

In order to experience the joy of knowing some of the future Christian leaders, the Dennerts plan to tithe to Garrett-Evangelical the income they receive from the trust, so that the seminary can begin awarding the Juanita and Robert Dennert Scholarship during their lifetimes. The Dennerts had previously provided through estate planning for a modest charitable remainder trust in their wills to support the seminary library.

Juanita summarized their feelings: "The farm was a gift to us, and we are grateful to gift it back. God has blessed us in so many ways over the years. Our prayers are that this gift will bless many lives in future years."

Garrett-Evangelical is blessed to have friends like Juanita and Robert Dennert who share our passion for well-trained Christian leaders. If you too share this commitment, we invite your participation in the seminary's "Forging Our Future" campaign. Unrestricted endowment gifts are especially welcome, as are gifts for endowed scholarships, faculty support, and program support. For further information on how you can participate, contact David Heetland, vice president for development, at 847.866.3970. One-time gifts, pledges over a five-year period, and planned gift commitments are all welcome.

Seminary Establishes Leadership Circle of Congregations

A number of congregations across the United States give generously to help Garrett-Evangelical educate bold leaders for the church and the world. Last year, for example, 65 churches and church organizations from 15 states supported the seminary.

Garrett-Evangelical hopes to increase the number of partner congregations, especially those who give at the leadership level ($1,000 and above). Thus, it is establishing the Leadership Circle of Congregations to recognize and thank those churches that are playing a critically important role in helping to train their future church leaders.

Churches and church organizations (such as United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, Sunday School classes, etc.) who give $1,000 or more between July 1, 2007 and June 30, 2008 will be recognized as charter members of the seminary's Leadership Circle of Congregations. Members of the Leadership Circle of Congregations will receive a certificate of appreciation for their partnership. They will also receive a periodic letter from the president updating them on seminary happenings, and an invitation to visit campus and dialogue with students and faculty. The seminary also hopes to feature some of these churches in future issues of Aware.

Leadership gifts to the seminary can help in many ways. Unrestricted gifts are always welcome as they help the seminary address its most pressing priorities and ongoing expenses. Gifts can also be designated for scholarship support. In fact, a congregation may want to "adopt" a student, providing full or partial tuition during a student's three years at seminary. Gifts for library support, faculty support, program support, and facility renovation are also welcome.

Garrett-Evangelical hopes to have at least 100 charter members in its Leadership Circle of Congregations, including rural, suburban, and urban congregations. Are you interested in learning more about the Leadership Circle of Congregations and how your congregation can join? Contact David Heetland, vice president for development, at 847.866.3970 or David.Heetland@garrett.edu, or visit www.garrett.edu/LCC.

CONSIDER AN END-OF-YEAR IRA GIFT

If you are 70.5 or older, it may be to your advantage to make a gift to Garrett-Evangelical from your IRA assets before the close of 2007. Some of the advantages include:

- Those aged 70.5 and older who make charitable gifts directly from their traditional or Roth IRA can do so tax-free.
- Donors may give all or a portion of their mandatory IRA withdrawals up to $100,000 this year.
- Donors aged 70.5 and older who are not able to itemize their tax deductions can give directly from their IRA and achieve the same benefits as if their gift was fully deductible.
- Donors aged 70.5 and older who are receiving Social Security income may make gifts directly from their IRA without increasing their adjusted gross income and possibly subjecting their Social Security income to higher levels of taxation.
- Those whose retirement assets are in other plans, such as a 401(k), may be able to transfer assets to an IRA and then make their charitable gifts.

Trustee News

*Four new trustees have been elected to the seminary's Board of Trustees:
Robert R. Carpenter, Bishop Philip R. Cousin, Sr., Anne Driscoll,
and James W. Lumberg*

Robert R. Carpenter

Robert R. Carpenter of Winnetka, Ill., has been a private investor since 2005 after a 20-year career as a successful executive for high-tech companies, earning a reputation as a master of strategic turnarounds.

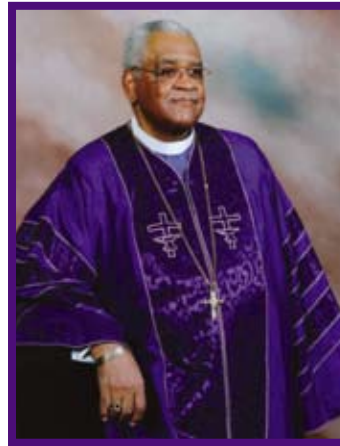

Most recently, from 2001-2005, Carpenter was president and CEO of Information Handling Services (IHS) based in Denver. Under his leadership the company grew annual revenue from $312 million to $400 million; expanded worldwide operations, particularly in China, Japan, Russia and Eastern Europe; made six acquisitions to expand product and service range; developed strategic, operating and financial disciplines necessary to reduce debt, grew net income from $18 million to $47 million, and improved free cash flow from $5.8 million to an average of $56.4 million over the last four years; and created a culture dedicated to creating competitive advantage for the customer and delivering outstanding operating and financial results.

After commuting between Denver and Chicago for four years and with the company in excellent financial and strategic shape, Carpenter stepped down as CEO in October 2004. He assisted the company as senior advisor to the chairman for another year.

After graduating with a bachelor of arts in political science and history from DePauw University in Greencastle, Ind., and earning a master of arts in foreign affairs at the University of Virginia, Carpenter came to Evanston for an MBA at the Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University.

Since earning his MBA, he has spent most of his career in the Chicago area, including consulting for The Boston Consulting Group in Chicago; at ATCOR in Harvey as director of sales and marketing of the Fire Protection Division and general manager of the Fence Division; and as corporate vice president of support operations for Square D Company in Palatine.

Bishop Philip R. Cousin

Bishop Philip R. Cousin, Sr. was ordained an itinerate elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Church in 1955 and elected and consecrated as the 96th bishop in 1976.

His pastoral assignments include Allen Temple A.M.E. Church in Riviera Beach, Fla., St. Paul A.M.E. Church in Danville, Va.; Trinity A.M.E. Church in Norfolk, Va.; and St. Joseph A.M.E. Church in Durham, N.C. He has served as president of Kittrell College in North Carolina, instructor of homiletics and black church studies at Duke University, and as a lecturer at Southeastern Theological Seminary and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

In 1976, the newly elected and consecrated bishop was assigned to the Ninth Episcopal District (Alabama) followed by service in the Eleventh Episcopal District (Florida and the Bahamas). In 1992, Cousin was assigned to the First Episcopal District, the denomination's largest (New Jersey, Delaware, New York, Philadelphia, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Bermuda). In 2000, he was assigned to the Fourth Episcopal District (Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, South Dakota and Eastern Canada), which he calls "the best of the best."

Cousin has been a member of the National Board of the Southern Leadership Conference since 1979; president of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the USA, 1983-1988; chairman of the Church World Service Unit Committee of the National Council of Churches of Christ; national board member of the NAACP; president of the trustee board, A.M.E. Church; and chairman of the Annuity, Investments, and Insurance Commission of the General Board, A.M.E. Church.

A native of Pittston, Pa., Cousin received a bachelor of arts from Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio, a master of divinity from Boston University and a doctor of ministry in black church studies from Colgate-Rochester Divinity School in Rochester, N.Y. He was a Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Fellow in Black Church Studies, one of only 21 in the world. This three-year course of intensive study followed the history of black religion from Africa to the United States with one summer each in West Africa, Haiti and the United States.

He has received many awards, and Ebony Magazine has twice selected him as one of the 100 most influential African-Americans.

Anne Driscoll

Anne Driscoll is a partner at McCarthy Bertschy & Associates in Chicago, the current chapter in a diverse and successful career spanning nearly 30 years of music, journalism and business. She is an active member of Trinity United Methodist Church in neighboring Wilmette, currently serving as chair of the Church Council.

At McCarthy,

Bertschy & Associates, a retained-only executive search firm, she is responsible for business development, client-relationship management, and candidate identification and development. While her largest body of work has been in the manufacturing, professional services and information industries, she has led numerous searches for senior corporate officers and division presidents in other arenas.

After receiving a bachelor of music in brass area performance at DePaux University, and a master of music at The Catholic University of America in Washington, she worked in advertising, as assistant publisher and finally as managing editor of The Instrumentalist. Based in Northfield, Ill., The Instrumentalist is the premier trade journal for instrumental music educators. She was there for eight years.

While in London for three years, she worked as accounts administrator for Monadnock International Limited, which provides training, development and leadership seminars for senior executives.

Driscoll has been the principal trombone with the Highland Park Symphonic Wind Ensemble and the Lake Forest Symphony. She has performed and recorded with Music of the Baroque. And she has performed with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra at Orchestra Hall and the Ravinia Festival under Sir Georg Solti, James Levine and Andre Previn.

In addition to her role as chair of the Church Council, Driscoll has worn many hats as a leader at Trinity United Methodist Church -- from chair of the Clampitt Fund Task Force to Sunday school teacher, and from chair of the Strategic Visioning Task Force to chair of the Marketing Strategy Team.

James W. Lumberg

James W. Lumberg, co-founder and managing director of Envestnet Asset Management, Inc. in Chicago looks forward to putting more than 15 years of experience in portfolio management to work for the seminary. Since he helped establish Envestnet in 1999, the company has enjoyed dramatic growth. Through a series of mergers, it now has more than $30 billion in assets under management and administration, more than 300,000 investor accounts and more than 300 employees. Beyond its Chicago headquarters, the company maintains offices in Denver, Los Angeles, New York, Silicon Valley, Calif., and Trivandrum, India.

Lumberg, who makes his home in Winnetka, is Envestnet's managing director. Before he co-founded Envestnet, Lumberg was vice president and director of fixed income funds at John Nuveen & Company, Inc., a leading investment firm in Chicago.

Lumberg received a bachelor of business administration from the Edwin L. Cox School of Business at Southern Methodist University. He also earned a master of arts in government studies at the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences at Harvard University.

Lumberg has been deeply involved in the United Methodist Church and mission work. He is a member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Wilmette and a member of the United Methodist Foundation Board of Directors (2000 to present). He served as missionary and teacher at United Methodist Church -- Ganta Mission in Liberia, West Africa, from September 1989 to January 1991.

He is also co-founder and president of Kilimanjaro English School in Moshi, Tanzania (2000 to present). During a mountain climbing trip, Lumberg and John Kelly realized the need for a school for the many children in Moshi. They began the school and a foundation to help fund it. The school provides a basic education that helps children climb the first rung of the education ladder. Beyond the classroom, it provides food, shelter, basic care and a safe, positive environment for severely underprivileged children after school hours.

WESLEY ASSOCIATE REPORT

This past year, nine individuals or couples made planned gift commitments to Garrett-Evangelical, thus qualifying for membership as a Wesley Associate. Membership is open to those who have made provision for the seminary through a will, an insurance policy, a trust arrangement, a gift annuity, or a gift of property with retained life interest.

These new members join 539 other living Wesley Associates who have previously included Garrett-Evangelical in their estate plans. Through their generosity the Wesley Associates ensure that Garrett-Evangelical will continue to be a strong and vital educational institution.

Garrett-Evangelical was started with a planned gift from Eliza Garrett, and planned gifts have built much of the seminary's current endowment. Garrett-Evangelical is deeply grateful for these visionary leaders. If you would like more information on becoming a Wesley Associate, contact David Heetland at 847.866.3970.

New Wesley Associates between July 1, 2006 and June 30, 2007 include:

Tom and Marilyn Balm
 Thomas and Hilda Butts
 Lyle and Dorothy Ann Christiansen
 Dale and Sally Christopher
 Michelle Cobb
 Linda Horrell
 Arthur and Charlotte Millholland
 Sharon Rader
 Marcia Wells

LEAVING A LEGACY!

On December 1, 1853, Eliza Clark Garrett signed a will leaving two-thirds of her estate to establish a fund for “the erection, fitting, furnishing, and endowment of a theological institution for the Methodist Episcopal Church.” Garrett was the widow of Augustus Garrett, an early mayor of Chicago, who had made his fortune in real estate.

Garrett-Evangelical is deeply grateful for the legacy of Eliza Clark Garrett—and the legacies of countless others which have sustained and strengthened this seminary for over 150 years. We give thanks for the following endowed funds which have been established this past fiscal year, recognizing that they are legacies to future generations of students preparing for ministry.

OSVALDO VENA PRODUCES ALBUM OF SONGS BASED ON POEMS BY PALESTINIAN AND ISRAELI CHILDREN LONGING FOR PEACE

Rambling around in the Downers Grove (Illinois) public library nine years ago, Osvaldo Vena found a little book that was about to be discarded. Chalk it up to divine intervention. Call it providential. He bought it for 50 cents, it being My Shalom, My Peace – Paintings and Poems by Jewish and Arab Children.

Originally published in Hebrew in Israel in 1974, it was the English translation published a year later and distributed in the United States by McGraw-Hill that wound up in Vena’s hands... and heart.

Vena, associate professor of New Testament at Garrett-Evangelical, was touched by the honesty and simplicity of the poetry, and the innocence of the drawings. The poems and paintings were expressions of children’s longing for peace in a war-ravaged land – children on both sides of the Israeli/Palestinian conflict.

Returning home, he decided to bring music to the poetry. A songwriter and guitar player since he was a 20-year-old in Venezuela, he eventually turned about 20 poems into songs. In 2005, he decided to record a CD. He assembled a group of like-minded friends and students who are musicians and last year recorded 12 songs on a CD titled Still a Dream. All proceeds from its sale will be used to create college scholarships for deprived Palestinian and Jewish children.

On his www.stilladream.com website, Vena writes: “I offer these songs as a tribute to the authors of these poems, Jewish and Arab children who already in 1974 wrote about their longing for peace. I want to join them and many others around the world, in a universal cry for harmony and understanding among the peoples of the Earth that goes beyond social, ethnic, and religious boundaries.

The CD was produced by Keith Kreuser at EV Productions of Evanston. The cover and website, featuring artwork by children at the Chicago Temple, was designed by Bill and Eliot Burlingham, also of Evanston. Vena is grateful to them as well as the following Garrett-Evangelical students who performed on one or more of the songs: Jesse Tanner, Mary Beth Elders and Sara Isbell.

Judge began her career as a member of the executive staff of the General Board of Global Ministries for The United Methodist Church in New York, eventually becoming the executive in charge of the designated giving program for national mission projects. She went on to found her own public relations consultancy which specialized in religious interfaith groups. "And now," said Harris, challenging local church members to get involved, "The fires are burning, dry bones are rattling when it comes to Harvest 2020 and making new disciples for Christ and the question is: 'What would the Lord have me do?'"
